Foreword

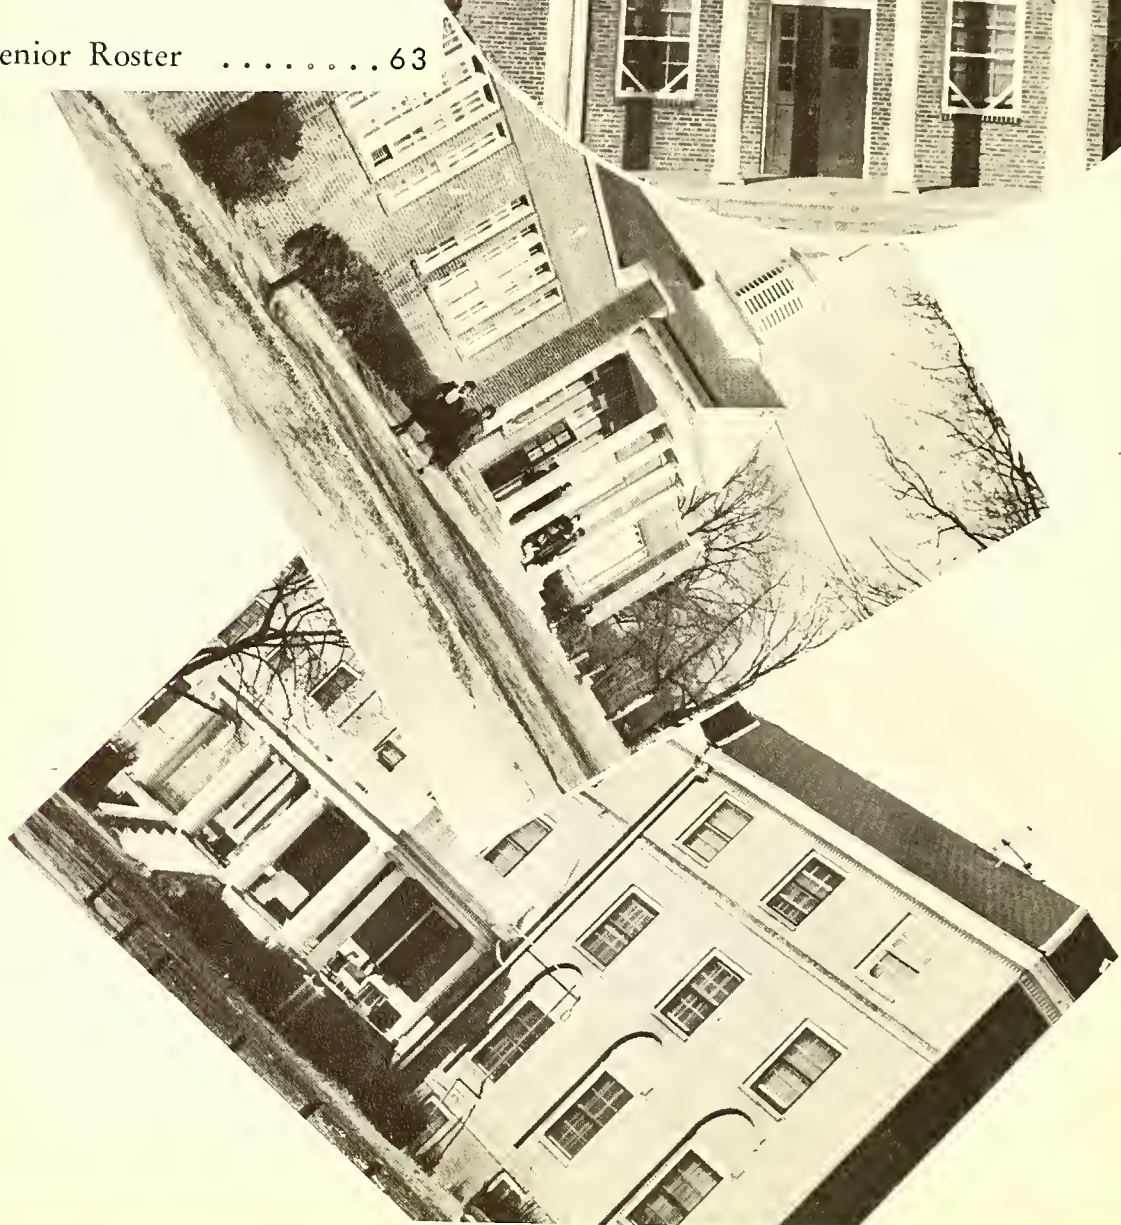

"It takes struggles in life to make strength. It takes singleness of purpose to reach an objective." . . . Prochnow

Our objective here, is to give you a souvenir of the "big year" of our stay at Henderson Institute. We hope that through our effort you will visualize the sound of happy voices, the spirit of good sports and the molding of ideals and aspirations . . . all blend into our high school experiences.

Dedication

Why do we dedicate this book to you?

Because you were there to wake us on cold mornings, so that we could get to school on time.

Because you were there with a cheery greeting when we returned in the afternoon.

Because you helped to make this year of 1960-61 the best year ever.

Because you were there when we needed you most, we give to you the most precious gift we have to offer. The dedication of a year's work, a year's memories.

Parents We dedicate this book to you.

The Senior Class

Principal's Message

Congratulations to you who are now finishing the first steps of your education for a career of work and service. There are several factors which make for success — the self, the other fellow/ and the relationship between the two. The success of self calls for sacrifice and study. The attainments of the other fellow call for the consideration and support you are willing to give. Both need the assurance that comes through inter-relations of a co-operative effort. May you always seek to lend a helping hand.

L. Spencer

Superintendent's Message

To the Seniors of 1961:

I am happy to congratulate each of you on your attainments. Your School Board has sought to provide excellent training for you here. You have come through Henderson Institute at a period of her greatest development. It is our hope that you have prepared well for the future that lies before you.

Your Class faces a future in the "Decade of the Sixties," that is, at best, uncertain. America will need your talents, your youth, and your abilities. We sincerely desire that you will serve well in the years ahead.

When I graduated from high school, our class motto was:

"Not failure but low aim is crime."
I commend this idea to each of you!

W. D. Payne

Editor and Co-editor

FROM THE EDITOR

Here is our production of the 1961 "Panther". We have sacrificed our time and put forth our effort in order to make it the best possible.

We have tried to capture the conventional and unconventional side of school life.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our patrons and advertisers for their encouraging support.

Luna Hawkins

FROM THE CO-EDITOR

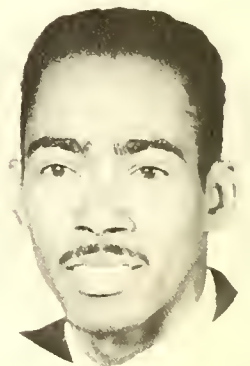

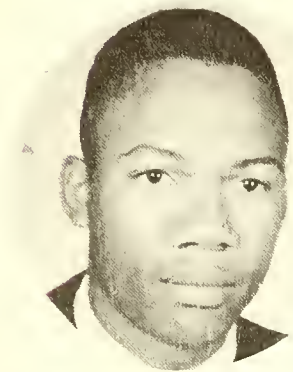

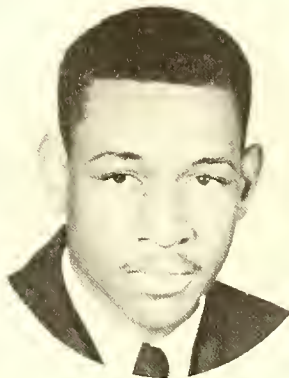

Our class takes this opportunity to express, in some small way, our appreciation for all the help you have given us. You have unselfishly devoted your time and effort to our class.

These are just a few of the many reasons why we present our annual "The Panther", to you.

CLASS WILL OF "61"

We, the senior class of the school of Henderson Institute, city of Henderson, county of Vance, state of North Carolina, country of the United States, continent of North America and Eastern Hemisphere, being of sound minds and bodies, do make this our last will which we bequeath our possessions as follows:

- I To our parents we will our appreciation of their guidance, patience, enthusiasm in our welfare and most of all love through the past years.
- II To our principal and faculty we leave our love, appreciation and gratitude for their time and effort they have devoted to us.
- III To our senior advisors we leave our sincere gratitude for their cooperation and participation.
- IV To all who precede us we leave our recipe for making a success:

Making A Success

4 cups Intelligence
1½ cups Responsibility
2 cups Open mindedness
1 qt. Understanding
12½ tsp. Attitude

1¾ cups Sifted Initiative
3 cups Ambition
2 cups Unbeaten Patience
1 cup Tactfulness
4 cups Ability
Dash of Judgment

Directions

Have all ingredients at body temperature, sift intelligence, ambition and understanding together. Mix cooperation, attitude and open mindedness until dissolved. Add gradual ability, tactfulness and responsibility. Stir initiative and judgment thoroughly. Beat patience until smooth; blend all ingredients well; sprinkle liberally with cheerfulness, and bake in an oven of determination when absorbed thoroughly cool and spread with common sense.

CLASS SONG (Tune—Auld Lang Syne)

Should all our memories be forgotten and never brought to mind?
Should all our memories be forgotten of a dear school so fine?
Oh no we'll never forget this school,
Oh no we'll never forget!
We'll always strive to hold you high and do our best work yet.

And when we're gone, we hope, my friends, that with work you'll go on,
To bigger and to better things, as we have always done.
For dear H. I., for dear H.I.
We'll say a prayer or two.
And hope your light will lead us on to greater tasks to do.

Juanita S. Bryant

CLASS POEM

Hail to the teachers, friends, classmates
And ones who have striven here!
To make us worthwhile seniors
Around H.I. so dear.

For twelve years we've been trying
And at last we did succeed,
T'was from the help you gave us
And information which we took heed.

This world is waiting for us
With both arms open wide.
The memory of your guidance to lead us
With God alone at our side.

By hard work you've prepared us for leaving
These walls that we love dear;
T'was our wish, so we are not grieving,
Our memory will ever be here.
